Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : The Director

FROM : Assistant General Counsel

SUBJECT:

DATE: 1 April 1949

1. The Senate Judiciary Committee staff was interested in any reports we might have which were sent from Yugoslavia to OSS by two former American officers, [ ] and [ ]. They were particularly interested in information we might have about these two officers.

2. I informed them that in all probability we would not have their reports, and that as operational reports they would not be made available. I told them further that, as the two officers concerned were Americans, we would have no available information as this was a proper subject for the FBI and not CIA.

3. As a result, they have withdrawn this request.
